E.E.O Instructions

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE RESPONDING

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to fail or refuse to hire or discharge any individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to that individual's terms and conditions of employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or protected veteran status or any other federally protected class. United Technologies Corporation ("UTC") is subject to certain governmental recordkeeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulations. In order to comply with these laws, UTC invites applicants and employees to voluntarily self-identify their race/ethnicity and gender.

Submission of this information is voluntary, and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information will be kept confidential and may only be used in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws, executive orders, and regulations, including those that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. When reported, data will not identify any specific individual.

If you choose not to self-identify at this time, the federal government requires us to determine this information by visual survey and/or other available information.

Invitation to Self-Identify Veteran Status: United Technologies Corporation is a Federal Government contractor, and as such, is subject to the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) regarding the reporting of veteran status information. UTC invites applicants and employees to voluntarily self-identify their veteran status.

Why are you being asked to complete this form?

Because we do business with the government, we must reach out to, hire, and provide equal opportunity to qualified people with disabilities [1]. To help us measure how well we are doing, we are asking you to tell us if you have a disability or if you ever had a disability. Completion of this form is voluntary, but we hope that you will choose to do so. If you are reporting this is only, and possible you will benefit from the information that we will use to improve our products and services.
