Department overview

We have an internship opening in the following department.

➤ Financial Institutions ('FI') :

The FI team covers banks and non-bank financial institutions in Korea, such as securities firms, asset managers, insurance companies, and other institutional investors (pensions, sovereign wealth fund and mutual aid associations). The FI team is a primary relationship contact to the client for their wholesale banking needs, mainly in Financial Markets, Lending, and Transaction Services. Key responsibilities include developing business opportunities, managing overall relationships with the clients, and Know-Your-Customer (KYC). The FI team collaborates with other sectors globally within ING's Wholesale Banking network (Real Estate Finance, Infrastructure, Energy and etc.) to provide sector expertise to FI clients.

Duties and responsibilities

- Support Relationship Managers in managing a portfolio of FI Korea clients
- Conduct research to support the FI team's marketing efforts (e.g. prepare presentation materials on FI products, translate research documents)
- Assist with client relationship expansion initiatives
- Assist in client onboarding and Know-Your-Customer (KYC) duties

What are the skill and qualification requirements of the role?

- Pursuing a Bachelor's degree (or Master's degree)
- Strong written and verbal language skills (both English and Korean)
- Proficiency in MS-office applications (e.g. PowerPoint, Excel)
- Strong quantitative orientation and analytical skills
- High motivation and sense of responsibility
- Fast learner
- Positive attitude with strong inter-personal and communication skills
- Ambition to learn about global banking and financial institutions

Required Documents

- English Resume;
- Academic Transcript (with Cumulative GPA);
